note5	Now I would like to ask you some questions about your family and about household tasks.
note_512	I am now going to ask you about how you and your partner divide different childcare tasks. NOTE: The following questions ask about how a woman and her partner divide childcare tasks. In some cases the child may be too young for the activity to be applicable (for example: to go to school) or the activity may be done by someone else in the household (e.g. a maid or other family member). In both cases, put 'not applicable'. Question relevant when: ${A10} !='0'
E.12	E.12 If you disregard the outside help you receive from others, how do you and your partner divide the following task: Providing the daily care of your child/ren Question relevant when: ${A10} !='0'	1	Always you
		2	Usually you
		3	Shared equally or done together
		4	Usually partner
		5	Always partner

note_thanks_7	NOTE TO THE INTERVIEWER: This can be a very difficult section of the survey. Below we provide some sample texts that you can choose from to thank the respondent for sharing her experiences with you. Please choose the one that feels relevant based on your interview: If the woman disclosed violence: I would like to thank you very much for helping us. I realize that these questions may have been difficult for you to answer. It is only from hearing from women themselves that we can really understand women's experiences. From what you have told me, I can tell that you have had some difficult times in your life. I can also see that you are strong and have survived through difficult circumstances. At the end of the interview I will share with you some information on organizations that provide support to women in your sector. Please contact them if you feel that you need their assistance, or share the list with another woman who may need these services. Thank you again for answering my questions.
